Since the above refers does Not recommend for an enhanced Duty allowance to the addl asst. for period and order whether a previous recommendation for an allowance of Rs 100 p.m Need be considered. The Duty allowance of Rs 50 + Rs 30 Conveyance allowance to a First asst to a RC has been discontinued from the end Decr. 48 for period and orders.

is being worked up there in the War branch itself. Perhaps, in view of what has been stated by the War branch no further action is necessary.

GKO 26/1 Sd/ 26.1.49

From the note of the War section in para 4 of the notes present it may be seen that the Rev. Commr. and Civil Representative has separately recommended the continuance of the post of Addl Asst to the Rev. Commr., which is held by Janab F.M. Abdul Rahim with a duty allowance of Rs 50/- pm only for a period of one year from 1.1.49.

The recommendation now under consideration is from the previous Rev. Commr. (Sri S. Narayana Rao). A similar recommendation was considered and turned down (vide CB file no. 3.64-47-(1) put up. It is noted therein that the analogy of Asst Engineer working as Asst to Spl. Offr, Surplus Stores Disposal, does not apply to the case of Janab F.M. Abdul Rahim. The same reason is given by the Rev Commr for grant of enhanced allowance to Janab F.M. Abdul Rahim.

As the question was once considered

REVENUE COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE
OFFICE OF THE BANGALORE
No.
- 1 NOV 1948

Respected Sir,

1) I beg to bring the following few lines to your kind consideration and favourable recommendation.

2) I have been working in this office as an Additional Assistant from 21st July 1947 in connection with the Disposal of Military assets purchased by the Government of Mysore from the Military Authorities ~~of Government~~ of Government of India in the various camps. You are quite aware, Sir, as to how promptly the assets purchased by the Revenue Department have been disposed of by me.

3) Several Officers deputed on Special Duty, have been given Special duty allowances and conveyance allowances. In the Revenue Commissioner's Office also, the 1st Assistant is being given an extra Special allowance of Rs.50/- plus 30/- P.M: as duty and conveyance allowances respectively for Civil Liaison work after the abolition of the post of separate officer. These allowances are still being continued.

4) So, also, the Assistant Engineer (Sri.Rajasekhariah) who was working as an Assistant to the Special Officer, Surplus Stores Disposals had been given an allowance of Rs.100/- P.M. as per G.O.No.W.608-610/W dated 4-10-1947. I also had submitted a representation praying for similar allowance; but to my misfortune, it was not sanctioned.

5) Now, I once again represent that after the abolition of the post of the Special Officer, Surplus Stores Disposals, his Assistant and some staff, as per Development Secretary's letter No.W.2197 dated 13th May 1948 the work of the office of the said Special Officer has been tacked on to this office, with the remaining establishment. I have been in charge of this work also, which has involved extra duty and responsibility.

6) Besides speedy disposal of work of both the branches, I have been able to get more income to the Government by way of Sale of Miscellaneous items which were not found in the list of purchases from the various Military camps, but found therein as abandoned. These were in the shape of stones of various descriptioms, culverts, bridges, earthern pipes, iron beams and scrap, wooden materials etc. But for my prompt and vigilent action these would have been stolen. These items thus disposed of have brought an extra income to Government to the extent of Rs.9421-4-0.

7) In addition, a sum of Rs.83980-13-0 has been shown as mostly savings to Government by economically working out of the expenditure towards the reinstatement charges of several Military Camps as can be seen from the enclosed statement.

8) I, therefore, request that the above facts may kindly be taken into consideration once again and recommended to Government to reconsider my Prayer forthe grant of the Special allowance of Rs.100/- per mensem from 21st July 1947 the date from which I have been working in this office as an Additional Assistant.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
With respects,
Yours faithfully,

Bangalore:
